HARRY PAYNE WHITNEY ESTATE BY HENRY STEFFEN

SOCIETY is patronizing the races being held on Long Island this spring more generously than in years, and the meets held by hunt clubs on the last three Saturdays have been most successful in every particular. One of the reasons for this increased interest and attendance is the presence in New York and its suburbs of more members of the fashionable world than are usually seen at this time of the year. Those who invariably go abroad in the spring are remaining at their homes until the opening of the seasons at Newport, Bar Harbor, Southampton, the Adirondacks and New Jersey resorts.

There was a large attendance yesterday at the meet of the United Hunts Racing Association at Belmont Park Terminal. The association will have another meet on Wednesday and then on the following day Belmont Park, across the way, will be opened for the regular racing season. This first day at the Park promises to be a gala affair and part of the receipts are to be turned over to charity. In addition to the excellent card offered, there will be the additional attraction of dancing, both exhibition and general. This is an innovation at a racetrack and promises to draw many who otherwise would not put in an appearance. Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Castle will do a dance never seen before. Two orchestras will play. The charities to benefit from the proceeds are the Lafayette Fund, the Committee of Mercy and the Blue Cross Association.

The committee in charge consists of Miss Diane del Monte, representing the Lafayette Fund; Mrs. Walter Maynard, the Committee of Mercy; Mrs. Elphinstone Maitland, of the Blue Cross, and Mrs. John Corbin.

Several additional boxes have been built, making about one hundred in all, and many of them already have been taken. The holders include Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Harriman, Mr. and Mrs. August Belmont, Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Gould Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. W. Goodby Loew, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Harriman, Mr. and Mrs. Ogden L. Mills, Mrs. Peter Cooper Hewitt, W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., Clarence H. Mackay, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton W. Cary, Dr. and Mrs. Preston P. Satterwhite, Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Gurnee, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Pinkerton, Mr. and Mrs. J. Sergeant Cram, Miss Barbara Rutherford, Francis Roche, R. T. Wilson, Mrs. Newbold Le Roy Edgar, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Vanderbilt and Mr. and Mrs. C. K. G. Billings.

MISS MARIE L. WANAMAKER BETROTHED TO GURNEE MUNN

One of the most interesting engagements announced last week was that of Miss Marie Louise Wanamaker, daughter of Rodman Wanamaker, to Gurnee Munn, son of Mrs. Charles A. Munn, of Washington and Beverly, Mass. The announcement was made at a small dinner given on Thursday night by Mr. and Mrs. Wanamaker at Sherry's. Miss Wanamaker, who is a granddaughter of John Wanamaker, was introduced to society last autumn. Her mother, who died in 1900, was a daughter of Charles Ferdinand Henry, of Philadelphia.

Mr. Munn was graduated from Harvard in 1911, and is a member of the Metropolitan and Chevy Chase clubs, of Washington. Charles A. Munn, Jr., who married Miss Mary Astor Paul, of Philadelphia, and F. C. Munn, of Washington, are his brothers.

Mr. Munn was graduated from Harvard in 1911, and is a member of the Metropolitan and Chevy Chase clubs, of Washington. Charles A. Munn, Jr., who married Miss Mary Astor Paul, of Philadelphia, and F. C. Munn, of Washington, are his brothers.

Although no formal announcement was made, the engagement of Mrs. Corinne Violet Hatch, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Atwood Violet, to John Ingram, of this city, became known last week. Mrs. Hatch obtained a divorce several years ago from her first husband, William Denison Hatch,

Mr. She has one sister, Miss Thelma Violet, and two brothers, Atwood Violet, Jr., and William Q. Violet. Mr. Ingram, who is a son of Justice George L. Ingram, was graduated from Harvard in 1898. He is a member of many prominent clubs, including the Union, New York Yacht, Metropolitan and Rockaway Hunt.

The wedding will take place next Saturday at the home of the bride's parents, 150 West Fifty-ninth Street, and on account of mourning it will be a quiet one. Mrs. Hatch will have no attendants. Mr. Ingram will have Alexander S. Webb as his best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan H. Davis, of Philadelphia, of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary L. Davis, to James H. Work, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Work, of Lawrence, Long Island. Mr. Work is a member of the Mayflower Descendants and the Rockaway Hunt Club. No date has been set for the wedding.

In the Church of the Heavenly Rest on Tuesday afternoon, June 8, Miss Lisa C. Suydam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Suydam, will become the bride of Paul Renshaw, of Albany. The Rev. Herbert Shipman, assisted by the Rev. John H. Prescott, of Bayport, Long Island, will perform the ceremony, which will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, 414 Madison Avenue. Miss Suydam will have Mrs. Riemann G. Duval and Miss Katharine E. Steward as her attendants. Alfred Renshaw will act as his brother's best man, and the ushers will be Howard Price Renshaw, Bache McEvers Whitlock, Emilen N. Drayton, Gavin Hadden and John R. Suydam, Jr.

An out of town wedding of interest to society in New York will be that of Miss Eliza Lawrence Hoffman, probably be no ushers, as only relatives and a few intimate friends have been invited. The engagement of the couple was announced about two weeks ago.

The marriage of Miss Dorothy Doubleday, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank N. Doubleday, to Frederick Huntington Babcock, of New York and Providence, R. I., will take place on Wednesday in Christ Episcopal Church, Oyster Bay, Long Island. After the ceremony a reception will be held at Effendi Hill, the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Doubleday, near Oyster Bay. The bride will be attended by the Baroness Vera de Ropp, Miss Eleanor de Graf, Miss Dorothy Baldwin, Miss Ruth Fitch and Miss Florence Johnson. A special train will take guests from this city to Oyster Bay.

Miss Hilda Charlotte Egerton Morris, daughter by former marriage of Mrs. George Alfred Lawrence, will be married to Matthew William Carswell, of this city, on Saturday afternoon in the Church of St. Mary the Virgin. The bride, who is a grandniece of the late Mrs. Mary Goodwin Pinkney, will be given away by her brother, Louis H. Morris. The bride attendants will be Mrs. William H. Yale, Miss Lucy Kent, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Harper Poor, to Dr. Alexander Yelverton Peyton Garnett, of Washington, will take place at noon on Saturday, June 12, at As You Like It, the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Poor in Easthampton, Long Island. The engagement was announced on January 27. Dr. Garnett is a son of Henry Wise Garnett and a grandson of the late former Governor Henry A. E. Wise, of Virginia.

Among the autumn weddings will be that of Miss Diantha Allen Fitch, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Allen Fitch, of 38 West Fifty-sixth Street, to Connor Lawrence, son of Frank R. Lawrence, of 524 Madison Avenue. It will take place in October in St. Bartholomew's Church. The engagement of the young couple was announced a year ago.

The marriage of Miss Katharine Page, daughter of the Ambassador to England, and Mrs. Walter Hines Page, to Charles Loring, son of the late General and Mrs. Charles G. Loring, of Boston, will be celebrated during the late summer in London. Their engagement was announced last March.

Squadron A's polo team will play the army officers' team at the garden party to be given on Governor's Island on May 26 by the New York branch of the Army Relief Society. Other attractions will be a company drill and an evening parade by a provisional regiment, Coast Artillery Corps. Refreshment tents will be scattered about the grounds, and there will be fortune telling, hand reading and other amusements. Miss Harriet M. Center is chairman of the committee in charge of the affair, and associated with her are Mrs. Oliver B. Bridgeport and Mrs. Fabius M. Clarke.

Among the patrons and patronesses are President Wilson, Secretary of War and Mrs. Garrison, Governor and Mrs. Whitman, Major General and Mrs. Leonard Wood, Mrs. Daniel S.
